IPOKRATES Neonatal Nursing Seminar

Advances & Controversies in Neonatal Nursing

OBJECTIVES

This seminar will focus on some of the newer, hot topics for neonatal nurses including non-invasive ventilation and infant cooling. Evidence for our practice will be examined using current research and the importance of such studies in neonatal nursing will be highlighted. Practice issues will also be visited resulting in the delegates receiving an overall picture of today's advances in neonatal care. Case studies will also be discussed which will help illuminate some of the more difficult ethical issues as well as clinical conundrums relevant in today's technical age. The discreet size of the group will allow interaction to take place and enable learning.
